

Revelation 10

Andy Smith

Verse:

As I stand in heavenly places I dream of things that could be There's an angel standing resplendant one foot on the earth, one foot on the sea and he's clothed in a rainbow of colour that frames the light of the sun with a voice like the roar of a lion declaring
 "Take heart, it won't be long - Take heart, it won't be long"

Chorus:

Then I see Jesus and He's wiping away every tear Only Jesus can wash away all of our fear send your water so we'll never be thirsty again We proclaim - Jesus reigns
